

World Access to Higher Education Day (WAHED) Program

28 November 2018 • USQ Toowoomba Campus
Y Block, Room 103 • Online: <https://usq.zoom.us/j/447287015>

9.30 am – 10.30 am (AEST)	Equity in Education for all creates great leaders of tomorrow Keynote Address: Prudence Melom
11.00 am – 11.30 am (AEST)	Using USQ systems data insights to enhance the success and retention of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students Presenters: Angela Murphy, Ryan Cornwell, Benjamin Robert Dexter. University of Southern Queensland
11.30 am – 12.00 pm (AEST)	Strategies and Successes: ways of making education available to incarcerated students Presenters: Stephen Seymour, University of Southern Queensland; Jayne Walker, Queensland Corrective Services; Marcus Harmes, University of Southern Queensland
12.00 pm – 12.30 pm (AEST)	Open Access College: widening access and enabling education at a regional university Presenters: Marcus Harmes, David Bull, Tatra Palfrey, University of Southern Queensland
1.30 pm – 3.00 pm (AEST)	Panel Session: Does everyone belong at university? Paul Buckley, Student, University of Southern Queensland Jenelle Choyce, Queensland Department of Employment, Small Business and Training Roger Green, Mentoring for Growth member, and recipient of the Ecom Small Business of the Year Award Kristen Lyons, University of Queensland Natalie Osborne, Griffith University + Brisbane Free University

You are encouraged to participate in the day via Twitter. Tweet your questions during the sessions with the hashtag #WAHED2018.

<https://wahed.usq.edu.au> wahed@usq.edu.au
#wahed2018